(Special to the Staff.)

Montauk, L. I., July 10.—(Special to the Staff.)—The Montauk Indians are suing to get possession of the eastern end of the north side of Long Island, where their claim extends to the Atlantic Ocean. The Indians, through their attorneys, the late Hon. Charles F. Smith, of New York, have secured a writ of habeas corpus in the Supreme Court of the State, which will require the defendants to show that they have a right to the land.

The suit is brought in the name of the Montauk Indians, who are represented by their attorneys, the late Hon. Charles F. Smith, of New York, and the late Hon. Charles F. Smith, of New York, who were the attorneys of Arthur W. Benson, John J. Benson, Henry B. Benson, and several other persons and corporations.

The case is a dark one, and the Montauk Indians are not likely to get their land back. The Montauk Indians are not likely to get their land back. The Montauk Indians are not likely to get their land back. The Montauk Indians are not likely to get their land back.
