

MONTAUK INDIAN DIES

Easthampton, L. I., Jan. 15—By the death of Olive, widow of Sam Butler, the dwindling tribe of Montauk Indians has been reduced to a membership of less than twenty-five. Mrs. Butler was born at Montauk. In 1870 she married Sam, a full-blood Montauk, who died in 1906. Olive is survived by nine children, a sister, Mrs. Maria Banks, and two brothers, George and Charles Fowler. Funeral services were held in St. Luke's Church and burial was at Cedar Lawn Cemetery, Easthampton.

Clipped By:

admin510

Thu, Feb 26, 2015