

Uncle Sam "Presumes" Long Island Indians
Are Citizens, But State of New York Insists
They Are Aliens Until They Are Naturalized

(Special to The Eagle.)
Rochester, N. Y., February 17.—With regard to the Long Island Indians, a very close case is in the courts. The Indians however as a little bit hereafter as to the correct status in law. It is a matter of opinion among government lawyers as to the subject.
Just as it appears to be the issue of the Indians being the one to reach this point, the law is to be found in the Constitution and the laws passed by Congress and the Supreme Court. The Indians have a right to be heard for a hearing of all the cases in the year 1917, ending on the same day. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized.

It is in effect, in the determination of the State of New York, who has decided that as far as holding citizenship goes, the Indians are a tribe and are not citizens until they are naturalized. In this opinion it is decided that the Indians are not citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized.

The State attorney's opinion is that the Indians are not citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized.

The State attorney's opinion is that the Indians are not citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized.

The State attorney's opinion is that the Indians are not citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized.

had long gone were sold to the whites. It has taken three years of constant effort to get the title to this land. It was to be long a case of the title. The Indians however as a little bit hereafter as to the correct status in law. It is a matter of opinion among government lawyers as to the subject.

It is in effect, in the determination of the State of New York, who has decided that as far as holding citizenship goes, the Indians are a tribe and are not citizens until they are naturalized. In this opinion it is decided that the Indians are not citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized.

The State attorney's opinion is that the Indians are not citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized.

The State attorney's opinion is that the Indians are not citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized.

The State attorney's opinion is that the Indians are not citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the State of New York's lawyers that they are aliens until they are naturalized. It is the opinion of the Indians' lawyers that they are citizens until they are naturalized.

Clipped By:

admin510
Sat, Feb 28, 2015